

Part 1: True (T) or False (F) Answers

- F False
Emily invites her friends to her house, not the cinema.
- T True
David says his grandparents (relatives) are visiting.
- F False
Alex accepts happily: "That sounds awesome!"
- T True
Olivia asks: "Can we watch a comedy film instead?"
- F False
Chloe refuses because she has to help her sister with homework.
- T True
Grace accepts and asks: "Can she (her cousin) come along?"
- T True
Exactly 2 people refuse: David & Chloe.

Part 2: Sample Reply (Refusing with a Reason)

Sample Refusal 1:

Reply: "I'd really love to join, Emily, but I can't make it. I have to study for my science exam on Monday."

Reason: Having to study for an exam.

Sample Refusal 2:

Reply: "Thanks for the lovely invitation! Unfortunately, I must visit my cousins tonight, so I can't come."

Reason: Family visit.

Choose the correct option: What do you say to accept?

- a) Why not?
("Why not?" means "Yes / Sure!")
- b) That's awesome!
(Accepts with excitement)
- a) I can't refuse it!
("I can't refuse it!" = Definitely accepting)
- b) I'll be there!
(Confirms attendance)

Choose the correct option: What do you say to refuse?

- a) I'd love to, but I can't
(Polite refusal phrase)
- b) I must help my parents at home
(Refuses by giving an excuse)
- b) I can't rollerblade
(Declines due to lack of ability)
- a) My cousins are visiting this weekend
(Refuses by offering an excuse)

JasminElt